Plenty of Bread Doubles Your Energy

The value of any food is estimated in terms of energy.

Foods that are delicate, perishable, highly-flavored, cost highest prices in market and often yield lowest returns in energy.

But a golden-crusted loaf of Bread is all food. 90% of it is converted almost immediately into force and energy.

That's why every thrifty housewife—

Makes Bread, Best of all Foods, the basis of every meal.

Plenty of Bread on your table means well-nourished bodies and food bills cut in half. It will repay you to

VOTE AS THEY PRAY, IF OTHERS CONTINUE TO PREY.The smoke screen the Republicans and their personally conducted organ-are attempting to throw about the "unscrupulous raid," made for political effect in Uniontown on Tuesday, is showing a sad lack of skill as a protector and a sadder lack of convincing properties.Dishonest and hysterical protestators that Internal Revenue Collector C. Gregg Lewellyn and former Congressman Bruce F. Sterling are not weighted down by the burdensome responsibility of enforcing the Volstead Act in the 23rd revenue district, and the vehement assertions that "either of these affable and abstemious gentlemen have nothing to do with the liquor traffic," are not serving the purpose of diverting attention from what, since the Malheur debacle of Democratic hopes, has become the main issue in the campaign and the Congressional districts which bear the same inauspicious nomenclature designation.The people hereabouts, with the innocence of ardent seekers after the truth, are finding this issue to be best expressed in the oft-repeated, but as yet unanswered, interrogatory:Why has nothing been done?" asked one.Are candidates for and opponents of the "one" on the campaign with vague to make impressions on the public?We had hoped by this time to induce some from our well-informed contemporaries that not a single one of the "affable and abstemious" in the district had been caught in the "unscrupulous raid" in the 23rd.Those poor souls has the habit of coming up on his sermon subject. It might be well to wear a light white gown while adhering to your hobby of attending services regularly.that no other form of answer will be necessary.Unless activity of this kind be entertained upon without delay and continued with a detraction unimagined by the political consequences, the people of the district will be un-confused by smoke screens and camouflage, undisturbed by bluffs, undermined by threats, and perverse enough to adhere to the opinions they have already formed as to.Why nothing has been done to apprehend and punish the persons participating in and those responsible for the "mysterious disappearance" of liquor from the bonded warehouses of the 23rd internal revenue district during the past eight months.And they may also be obstinate enough to vote as they pray for deference from those who would continue to prey upon their credulity.

"Why has nothing been done?"

Candidate Goss' vicious attacks on Wall Street have borne bloody fruit.With the next Autumn comes stated in the Showday or the court house!Standing first among the third-class agents having the highest salaried expenses to Democratic taxpayers who they have had to stand and deliver.Candidate Goss is willing to make even more strenuous efforts to get into the House than he is to get into the League of Nations.The Constitution of the Department is the paramount law," says Senator Harding. "The voters will make no mistake in determining which is to be.Democrats appear to favor either the "banned" as a more ample show for the Republicans than the so-called "Peace, Progress and Prosperity.""Why has nothing been done?" asked another. "Why?"Are candidates for and opponents of the "one" on the campaign with
contemporaries that not a single one of

NOTHING TO LAUGH AT.Tried nothing to tell at all as I can and you'll begin to say that's a bundle been An old nose was swelled and it smarted All day.You wouldn't want people to tell at you if you had a bump that was full of the like you'd been touched by a red hot iron.An iron nose spread out like a broad leaf of bay.You won't want strangers who can't see you.To ask you to let me see the place An old at you right before your face.What's funny about us, Ed like to know?It isn't a joke to be hunted and An how we ever on earth to tell At the party dinner which I stopped the small.In my backyard was the very one Which a bee was busily working on.
He lit as I got my nose down there And plucked his stinger right off.

But he's nothing to laugh at, as I can see.

I let out a yell and say Now come on To see what the trouble was all about.
She said from my sleeve she was sure at last.She was struck by a motor car just in by.But when I found what the matter She said just like everybody does.Anybody made to stand while she polled about.

To pull his terrible sting out.

Any my he taffed too, when he looked at me.

But he's nothing to laugh at, as I can see.

Recalling, as most people of this section do, that C. Gregg Lewellyn was commissioned collector of the 23rd internal revenue district at the instance of his next friend and political guardian, Bruce F. Sterling, then representative in Congress from the 23rd Congressional district, a certain and also definite responsibility rests upon the latter for the official omissions or derelictions, if any there be, of the former, just as conspicuous achievments or extraordinary zeal in discharge of the collector's duties would reflect credit upon the person who had the discernment to select him for this important post.By the inexorable logic of the facts and the present situation the people of the district are now forced to look first to Collector Lewellyn, for answer to the still unanswered question:Why has nothing been done to apprehend and punish the persons
participating in and those responsible for the "mysterious disappearance" of liquor from the bonded warehouses of the 23rd internal revenue district during the past eight months?In event of failure or inability on part of Collector Lewellyn to give satisfactory answer, explanation or assurances, the public will next look to Congressman Sterling to see if he gives a portrayal of a fearless, unfettered and irreconcilable government official in relentlessly bringing offenders against the law to justice.Classified

WEST PENN TRIMS WHITNEY TEAM FOR THE SECOND TIME

Power Men Take Over Crack Organization in Fall Nine-Inning Contest.

GRD EQUIPMENT IS HERE

The West Penn baseball organization won its second game over Whitney at the Mountaineer Field yesterday afternoon. The contest, which went to the ninth inning, was hard fought and the good sports of both pitchers kept the score well down.

The West Penn took the lead in the first inning, then two runs were scored soon after in the second inning. This score set off the West Penn players and they put in a fast, exciting ninth inning and sent two more runs across the plate.

Whitney came from behind to send in a short-lived rally and got one run.

The West Penn had Pitts laid on the mound with a fast ball and living stone at circling him and the bat. Roza and Smith joined the batsmen for the visitors.

The West Penn season is nearly at a close after a successful year. The term according to its management will be even stronger next season.

EQUIPMENT FOR FOOTBALL

ALAM ARRIVES AT SCHOOL
The new jerseys and stockings for the high school football team arrived at the first school and will be distributed on the 1st of October next week. This will be the Wednesday with the Mount Pleasant team up high school or with the Charter of right on Saturday.

The jerseys are dark with orange stripes around the arms. The special Connellsville high school jersey—black with a blue horned lamb round the waist and a star in the center on each sleeve—could not be equalled this year.

The team will probably go before the state champion in October when it lines up against its opponents in the last contest. The preliminary game is held by the conference under the direction of Mrs. L. S. V. This is now proving to be a challenging and exciting game.

It is too early to tell just who will be in the race for the pennant game. Some may say that with this team having all the cards we have to give them competition.

WORLD SERIES DOPED
Brooklyn ad served and pegged in the three-day battle in the National League series ending when that team defeated the Cincinnati Reds.

The defeat of the visitor with a victory for New York can't disrupt the champion's third place and McGraw men are now on the trail of the Dodgers. The Cardinals, however, are front in the battle to hold on to their games. However, come this end of the McGraw club still has to win four of the remaining 11 games and do it in while the Robins are putting away the remaining 10 games to be played as necessary. With the Cards still competing, a three-game series in New York tomorrow is a condition that likely that either team can overcome Brooklyn's lead.

The American League Cleveland has increased its lead to one full game over New York. The first three teams—Cleveland, New York and Chicago—are so closely bunched in it is a mathematical impossibility to attempt to figure out a certain winner. Cleveland has the first position by 13 points and New York is only two points ahead of the Chicago outfit.

FOOTBALL TOGS COST $3,000

New Outfits Purchased for Members of University of Missouri Football Team.

When the University of Missouri football team takes the gridiron next fall it will be toga'd in a new and distinctive Tiger uniform. The outfit, which are to cost about $3,000 will consist of striped stockings, striped jersey sleeves and every type of head gear necessary.

AARON WARD OF YANKS PULLS NEW BONE PLAY

Here is a new bone play pulled in by American empire players of the Yankees and Browns being guilty.

Aaron Ward of the Yankees was on first. A pitched ball grazed the side of Sam Rice at bat and cutting a wide slit he started for first base. Ward seeing him coming trotted down to second.

The umpire however refused to call Ward to base for being hit by a pitched ball and called him back to bat. Whereupon Ward turned and slowly walked back to first base.

Ward technically had stolen second base and was entitled to it. But a St. Louis player attempted to interfere with him returning to first or made an move to tag him off that would have been the one he legally held and the only one.

The game went on.

About Influenza

Influenza is a germ disease and you are much more likely to contract it when you are cold. Many people believe that influenza starts with a cold, the fact is the cold simply prepares the system for the reception and incubation of the influenza germ. If you would avoid influenza avoid colds and when you contract a cold take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy until you have fully recovered from it. If you do this you are much less likely to take the influenza.—Adv.

THE BOISBON

Today's attraction at the Solomons theatre is Goldwyn's motion picture version of Rupert Hughes' great American story "The Grip of Fury." It is a vivid, stirring, photoplay showing with the spirit of two An excellent item as embodied in the complex personality of Mamie, run-away music hall actress and social butterfly who casts aside a life of luxury and pleasure to help alleviate the suffering of humanity.

THE PARAMOUNT

Some of the most expensive pieces ever photographed appear in a Warner Kerrigan's latest production "The Green Flame" at the Paramount theatre. This latest feature presents Kerrigan as a private detective famous for his work as guardian of valuable gems. Many of the most important scenes of the picture occur in what is supposed to be a fashionable New York jewelry store. In order to establish complete realism Kerrigan's technical director instructed the property department to stock the show cases and she set to work with genuine silver plate and jewelry.

According to an arrangement was made with a well known Los Angeles jeweler to loan the company a quantity of gold and fine plate diamonds, pearls, brooches, rings, bracelets, pins, watches and lock to value approximately $70,000. With these beautiful materials she began the jewelry store set as assembled in a detailed manner of a photograph of one New York's finest rooms.

for Aged
People

THE BANE of old age is constipation. The bowels become weak and unable to perform their functions without aid. For this purpose only the mildest and gentlest laxative should be used. The use of harsh cathartics aggravates the trouble and makes the constipation worse. Chamberlain's Tablets are a favorite with people of middle age and older on account of their gentle action.
